

WOMEN DEMAND TWO PLACES WITH DEMOCRATS' BIG 4

Rivalry Between City and State
May Give Each a Representative.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Feb. 24.—Lively times are anticipated this week at the two Democratic conventions here, one of women and one of men. Without a doubt the former gathering will be the most interesting. The men expect to confine their work to a day in Odd Fellows' Hall, while the women will meet for two days in the Hotel Ten Eyck.

The women demand at least two places on the slate of the Big Four. Miss Elisabeth Marbury is a favorite for the place, but the Women Suffragists want somebody who was a Suffragist from the start, and Miss Marbury was not one of these. But on the other hand, Miss Marbury was one of the women to do a man's work on the other side, and it is said has been pledged Tammany's support.

Mrs. Grace Strachan Forsythe is prominently named for a place and is not sparing any efforts or pull for the job.

Mrs. Florence May Mills of Syracuse is the up-State Suffragists' candidate. Among those making her fight and who are expected here today are Mrs. Alice Duer Miller, Mrs. James Roosevelt, Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, Mrs. Montgomery Hare and Miss Alice G. Perkins of New York City.

Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby of New York City is another aspirant for a place on the ticket. She is Vice Chairman of the State Democratic Committee and Chairman of the Committee of One Thousand Women. The women demand at least one place on the Big Four and one alternate.

Francis Cullen of Watertown will be the temporary Chairman as well as the permanent Chairman of the unofficial convention of the Democrats, which meets in Odd Fellows' Hall on Thursday. The platform, it is said, will be in the shape of a memorial, and at the present writing prohibition is to be given a wide berth. The principal speaker at the convention will be Gov. Smith.

PEKIN IN BANKRUPTCY.

Proceedings Started Against Chinese Restaurant.

A disagreement between ninety Chinese stockholders in the Dragon Restaurant Company, operating the "Lion" restaurant at No. 176 Broadway, resulted today in involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against the establishment. Attorney Samuel de Buerstein of No. 63 Park Row asked for the appointment of a receiver. The principal creditors are the Hawley Construction Company, $6,700; Charles Smoker, $2,400, and Paul Silverstein, $900.

The bankruptcy of the Pekin followed the announcement of the closing of the restaurant, which was the Cafe de Paris at Broadway and 43rd Street. This famous cafe, which is to be converted into a public dance hall, is numbered among the commercial casualties of prohibition.

COURT FREES NINE IN POOL ROOM CASE

"Fine Police Work," Says Magistrate When Detectives Fail to Prove Nuisance.

Harry Cavanaugh, No. 156 West Fifty-fifth Street, was held in $500 bail by Magistrate Nolan in the West Side court today on the charge of conducting a poolroom on the third floor of No. 157 Broadway. He was arrested there yesterday by Detectives Brady and Rothamel of Inspector Henry's staff.

The detectives also took into court nine alleged patrons of the place who were accused of disorderly conduct. "Have you any witnesses to prove that these men were disturbing the quiet and repose of the neighborhood?" Magistrate Nolan asked.

"One woman said that they were a nuisance," replied Detective Brady. "What is her name?" asked the court. "I don't know," answered the detective. "I will say that is fine police work," commented the court. "That's all I want to hear of this case. Discharged."

Robins in Yonkers; Bears Too. Police Lieut. Willard Manoe, of the Second Yonkers Precinct, reported today that he saw three robins hopping about the snow on Central Avenue, near the entrance of the Empire City Race Track. The report was accepted as the actual beginning of spring in Yonkers, although in contrast with reports of last Saturday that deer and bear had been driven into the outskirts of Yonkers by the deep snow in the hills of Westchester County.

A large problem! When selecting the proper scarfs to wear with their new shirts, some men don't know whether to say "yes" or "no."

White shirts, of course, help. No stripes to match or tones to blend.

To men in doubt, our salesmen are prepared to make suggestions.

POLICY HOLDERS NOT TO SUFFER

Adjustment Expected Following Collapse of Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company.

The hearing scheduled for to-day on the motion of Thomas B. Donaldson, Pennsylvania Insurance Commissioner, for an adjustment of the civil suit brought by him against George F. Montgomery and others in connection with the collapse of the Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company, was postponed until Thursday in the Supreme Court. In the interval lawyers are expected to agree on a form of order for the settlement.

The policy holders will not suffer in any event, it was said, for the business of the company has been taken over by the Metropolitan Life, which assures payment under the conditions of the policies.

WOMAN SHOP LIFTER FINED.

Impoverished wife Gets Off With $200 Payment Because of Family.

Mrs. Adie Hammenstein, twenty-eight years old, of No. 332 Central Park West, wife of an impecunious man, was fined $200 to-day by Judge O'Keefe, Voorhies and Moss in Special Sessions when she pleaded guilty to shop lifting in R. H. Macy Company's store on Jan. 25. She was allowed to pay the fine because she had a home and children.

Mrs. Irene Ward, thirty years old, of No. 418 West 22d Street, pleaded guilty to stealing underwear and silk from Wambsancker's on Feb. 14. Because of previous offenses she was given twenty days in the workhouse.

FOR MACY EXTENSION.

Firm Buys Five Parcels of Land Adjoining Store.

R. H. Macy & Co. have purchased five additional parcels in 5th and 35th streets to be utilized for an addition to the present store. The property includes the two six-story buildings at Nos. 132 to 139 West 24th Street, and two five-story tenements in the rear, at Nos. 134 and 137 West 25th.

The holding price is said to have been $200,000 and the assessed valuation $243,000. Plans were filed some time ago for a seventeen-story addition to the present ten-story store.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

To the Patrons of the National's Outlet Store:—

The great throngs that attended the Gigantic Sale of wearing apparel at this store on Monday crowded the place to such an extent that it was necessary to lock the doors at frequent intervals to avoid an impassable congestion.

In order to accommodate the thousands of people who were unable to make their purchases, all merchandise advertised for Monday's selling will be placed on sale again on Wednesday as far as quantities will permit.

We wish to thank our customers for their generous response, and beg to announce that all week long there will be big sales of National Overstocks that will go far toward cutting the high cost of living.

Monday's Bargains, repeated on Wednesday, will include:
